Important Information

- This card summary outlines the new credit card contract you have requested. We have included key information about the money you are borrowing, the interest rates, the fees we charge and other important details. Other key information about your card contract is contained in the accompanying Business Mastercard® Conditions of Use (we refer to this document as the 'conditions of use') and Business Mastercard® Fees Information (we refer to this document as the 'fees brochure').
- Some of the words used in this card summary have a particular meaning. We set these out in section 1 'Certain words have special meanings' of the conditions of use.
- This card summary has been prepared as at the date shown at the top. The information in this card summary is current as at that date, but can change, including before you or a cardholder first uses a card or your card account.
- Please make sure you read and understand this card summary, the conditions of use and the fees brochure. These documents contain details of the terms of your card contract, including important rights and obligations. You must also make sure your cardholders understand and comply with their responsibilities in the conditions of use.

If you would like any additional information or you would like to discuss anything about your card contract, please contact us. If you no longer want your card contract, you can contact us using the details above to let us know.
